Excess Hours Surcharge

Board of Governor's Regulation 7.001 (3)

Florida Statue 1009.286 authorizes State universities to require a student entering any post-secondary or higher education institution for the first time in Fall semester 2009 to pay an excess hour surcharge equal to 50 percent of the tuition rate for each credit hour in excess of 120 percent of the number of credit hours required to complete the baccalaureate degree program in which the student is enrolled. As amended, a student entering any post-secondary or higher education institution for the first time in Fall 2011 will be required to pay an excess hour surcharge equal to 100 percent of the tuition rate for each credit hour in excess of 115 percent of the number of credit hours required to complete the baccalaureate degree program in which the student is enrolled.
