WOMEN'S STUDIES (WST)

Women's Studies at the University of South Florida offers an interdisciplinary field of study that features and critically examines women's experiences, taking into consideration historical, cultural, racial, class, and other differences. The department offers a B.A., a minor in Women's Studies, and a concentration in Women of Color Studies, as well as enhancing knowledge about feminisms and gender studies through teaching, emphasis on multiculturalism and diversity, the department focuses on critical thinking, collaborative learning, and personal empowerment.

Women's Studies offers excellent undergraduate preparation as well for:
- Those who wish to apply to law school or to graduate study in a variety of fields, e.g., Urban or Medical Anthropology, Counselor Education, Criminal Justice, Gerontology, History, Rehabilitation Counseling, Social Work, Women's Studies
- Those who want to focus on women in specific disciplines or professions; and
- Those whose training would benefit from a close scrutiny of the major issues facing women today.

Requirements for the Major in Women's Studies

Prerequisites (State Mandated Common Prerequisites)

Students wishing to transfer to USF should complete the A.A. degree at the community college. Some courses required for the major may also meet General Education Requirements thereby transferring maximum hours to the university. If students transfer without an A.A. degree and have fewer than 60 semester hours of acceptable credit, the students must meet the university's entering freshman requirements including ACT or SAT test scores, GPA, and course requirements.

The transfer student should also be aware of the immunization, foreign language, and continuous enrollment policies of the university.

No State Mandated Common Prerequisites are required for this degree program. However, during the program of study at the community college students should begin to satisfy General Education/Gordon Rule requirements, take WST 3015, "Introduction to Women's Studies," or other introductory courses in the Social Sciences and Liberal Arts. Courses to help students with reading and writing skills are required for the major issues facing women today.
