The program in English provides three areas of specialization:

1. Professional and technical writing - The professional and technical writing option combines the study of English and American literature with an introduction to writing found in the professional workplace.

2. Creative writing - The creative writing option includes training in writing fiction and poetry and study of English and American literature.

3. English and American literature - The primary mission of the literature option is to provide a solid foundation in the study of British and American literature. The program also offers courses in other world literatures in translation, cultural studies, feminist and ethnic studies, and both traditional and more recent critical approaches.

Upper-level coursework in the English Major:

The program in English provides three areas of specialization (divided into three degree-options below):

English and American literature - The primary mission of the literature option is to provide a solid foundation in the study of British and American literature. The program also offers courses in other world literatures in translation, cultural studies, feminist and ethnic studies, and both traditional and more recent critical approaches.

Creative writing - The creative writing option includes training in writing fiction and poetry and study of English and American literature.

Professional and technical writing - The professional and technical writing option combines the study of English and American literature with an introduction to writing found in the professional workplace.

The English Education major is described under the section for the College of Education. Major requirements for English majors are listed below. A grade of "D" will not be counted toward fulfilling the major requirements. Grades of "D" or "F" in English courses will, however, be used in calculating the major GPA unless the course is retaken under the grade forgiveness policy. Students may not use more than one Directed Study toward meeting the major requirements. Transfer students must earn at least 15 hours in the major at USF. A 2.5 GPA in the major is required for graduation.

ENGLISH HONORS PROGRAM

The Department of English Honors Program will provide a carefully selected group of seniors with opportunities for advanced scholarship:

A. Closer contact with faculty tutors than students in the regular major program;
B. An opportunity to work and exchange ideas in the stimulating environment of a small group of fellow students with similar aims and abilities;
C. An opportunity to develop individual initiative and sophisticated critical skills.

The English Honors Program will benefit those interested in graduate work, advanced professional study, or greater intellectual challenges.

Admissions Criteria

Students may apply for the program after completing 80 hours of course work (90 before actual admission). Applicants should have a GPA of 3.3 in the major and an overall GPA of 3.0 and should submit signatures of recommendation from two English faculty supporting their applications.

After screening all applications, the department's Honors Committee will interview all eligible applicants before selecting participants in each year's program.

Requirements for Completion of Departmental Honors

1. The Honors student will complete the requirements of his/her chosen English major as described in the current catalog.
2. In addition to the requirements of the major, the student will take two (three-hour) Honors seminars during the first semester of his/her senior year. Both courses should help the student in selecting a topic for his/her Honors thesis.
3. During the second semester of the senior year, the Honors student will enroll for three thesis hours. The instructors of the first semester's seminars will serve as instructors of record for the thesis hours and as readers of all Honors theses. The student will choose a member of the faculty to serve as the third reader of his/her thesis. The student must satisfy the following requirements:
   a. Complete both Honors seminars with a 3.3 GPA;
   b. Complete all remaining major requirements with a 3.3 GPA and remaining academic course work with an overall GPA of 3.0 in both areas;
   c. Submit an acceptable thesis to the Departmental Honors committee.
4. The student who completes all requirements above will graduate with Honors in English. The credit hours completed within the program by the student who does not complete all Honors requirements will, of course, count toward the baccalaureate degree.

The Honors Committee will disqualify any student from the program who does not complete the Honors seminars with at least a 3.3 GPA.

Honors students failing to complete a thesis within two years after acceptance into the program will be notified by the Honors Committee of their dismissal from the program.
