URS 3002 Introduction to Urban Studies (3)

Anthropology majors are urged to become competent readers and speakers of a relevant modern foreign language (which may include American Sign Language). They are also urged to enhance their English reading, writing, speaking and critical thinking capabilities and develop their skills in computational, statistical and other forms of quantitative analysis at every opportunity. Students are encouraged to fulfill General Education and Exit requirements with courses relevant to their interests in anthropology whenever possible. In pursuit of all these goals, they should meet with the department's Undergraduate Advisor at least once each semester to discuss such topics as academic progress, future course plans, Department Honors Program, summer field schools, job opportunities, graduate education and professional careers in anthropology.

Requirements for the Minor in Anthropology

The minor in Anthropology consists of a minimum of 18 credit hours with a "C" average (2.0), distributed among three areas. Students will normally progress through these areas in the order listed below, selecting courses prerequisite or otherwise appropriate to courses desired in subsequent areas. Exceptions to this pattern must be approved by the department's undergraduate advisor. Students are urged to consult with advisor to create the most beneficial set of courses.

1. 2000-level required core course (3 credit hours)
   ANT 2000 Introduction to Anthropology (3)

2. Intermediate-level core courses (3-6 credit hours)
   ANT 2410 Cultural Anthropology (3)
   ANT 2511 Biological Anthropology (3)
ANT 3101 Archaeology
ANT 3610 Anthropological Linguistics

3. 4000-level elective courses (9-12 credit hours)
As described above in the listing of elective courses in archaeology, physical anthropology, anthropological linguistics and cultural anthropology.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE ANTHROPOLOGY HONORS PROGRAM

The purpose of the Honors Program is to provide outstanding Anthropology undergraduates with advanced, individually tailored training in areas of anthropology of interest to them. The program, operating independently of the major itself, involves a year of coursework and research culminating in the writing of an Honors thesis. Students in the second semester of their junior year, prior to completion of 90 semester hours, may apply to the program, which begins in the Fall semester. Admission is competitive, based on the student’s overall academic record (minimal 3.0 GPA overall, 3.5 GPA for USF anthropology course work) and a letter of recommendation from a member of the Department of Anthropology. Successful completion of the program requires maintenance of a 3.0 overall and a 3.5 in the major, completion of ANT 4932 (4) (Honors Seminar) with a grade of "B" or better, completion of ANT 4970 (3) (Honors Thesis) with a grade of "S," and completion of all other requirements for graduation. See the Anthropology Department Undergraduate Advisor for further information and application forms.
