• MASS COMMUNICATIONS (COM)

The School of Mass Communications, accredited by the Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications, offers approximately 70 courses varying in content from the highly technical and field-specialized in some cases to an orientational liberal arts orientation in others. The program introduces students to the theories, principles, and problems of communications, emphasizing the concept of freedom of information as the cornerstone of constitutional democracy and preparing students for future leadership roles in communications media. Graduates should understand the structure and functions of mass media systems as well as the basic processes of communication. In addition, students specialize in an area of mass communications (advertising, journalism, public relations, or telecommunications) to blend a strong introduction to professional skills with the theoretical orientation.

Mass Communications majors taking more than 44 hours of Mass Communications courses (advertising, journalism, public relations, or telecommunications) to blend a strong introduction to professional skills with the theoretical orientation.

Mass Communications majors are required to take a minimum of 80 hours in courses outside the journalism and mass communications areas, with no fewer than 65 hours in the basic liberal arts and sciences. (Liberal Arts courses are listed in materials available from the School program advisor.) To facilitate this, no more than 44 hours of Mass Communications courses may be applied toward the bachelor’s degree within the 124-hour graduation requirement. Mass Communications majors taking more than 44 hours of Mass Communications courses, regardless of the departments in which those courses are listed, must add those hours to the 124 hours required for graduation. In particular, film and photography courses offered in other departments may be considered to be Mass Communications courses and added to the 124-hour degree requirement.

At least twenty-two (22) hours of resident School courses are required. All material submitted by students as assignments in writing, reporting, editing, photography and electronic news gathering and production classes is subject to publication or broadcast. The School uses a variety of print and electronic media outlets.

Sign Language may be used as an option by Mass Communications majors to fulfill the language requirement.

Most Mass Communications courses have prerequisites as specified in the course description (these prerequisites are separate from the State Mandated Common Prerequisites for program admission listed below). Refer to each prerequisite listed to determine progressive prerequisites for each course. Students also should note that the Mass Communications major is a four-semester program at a minimum and the majority of courses are offered only during the day.

Prerequisites (State Mandated Common Prerequisites)

This is a limited access program. Students wishing to transfer to USF should complete the A.A. degree at the community college. Some courses required for the major may also meet General Education Requirements thereby transferring maximum hours to the university. If students transfer with fewer than 60 semester hours of acceptable credit, the students must meet the university’s entering freshman requirements including ACT or SAT test scores, GPA, and course requirements.

The transfer student should also be aware of the immunization, foreign language, and continuous enrollment policies of the university.

Students must complete 18 semester hours outside the Mass Communications curriculum and beyond the 36 hours general education requirements prior to entering the university. If these courses are not taken at the community college, they must be completed before the degree is granted. A grade of “C” is the minimum acceptable grade. Students are encouraged to complete the following prerequisites, or major, support, or elective courses if available, during the program of study at the community college, and when feasible in General Education/Gordon Rule courses.

English Composition (minimum grade of “C”) (6)
MMC 3602 Mass Communications and Society (3)

Prior to being admitted to the School of Mass Communications, a student must:

- Complete a minimum of 45 semester hours including all General Education requirements and six hours of English composition (with a minimum grade of “C”), earn a 2.75 overall GPA, and pass a School-administered English Diagnostic Test.

A maximum of nine semester hours in Mass Communications courses will be accepted from a community college or other lower-level program toward a degree in Mass Communications. It is suggested that the nine hours include the equivalent of the School core curriculum and one sequence introduction course. Approval by an appropriate advisor is required.

Requirements for the Minor in Mass Communications

The minor in Mass Communications is available to students pursuing any other major at USF. Students who wish to minor must apply for admission to the School of Mass Communications and must meet all admission standards required of majors. Please see “Requirements for the Major in Mass Communications” for more admission information.

The minor in Mass Communications requires a minimum of 18 hours of School coursework, including:

- MMC 2100 (3)
- MMC 3602 (3)

The other 12 hours may be selected from among School offerings and must include a minimum of 9 hours at the 3000-level or higher. All major course prerequisites must be met. A grade of “D” or “F” will not be counted toward a mass communications minor and a 2.5 grade point average in all minor coursework must be maintained. All minor hours must be completed at USF.
