Requirements for the Major in English

Prerequisites (State Mandated Common Prerequisites)

Students wishing to transfer to USF should complete the A.A. degree at the community college. Some courses required for the major may also meet General Education Requirements, thereby transferring maximum hours to the university. If students transfer without an A.A. degree and have fewer than 60 semester hours of acceptable credit, the students must meet the university’s entering freshman requirements, including ACT or SAT test scores, GPA, and course requirements.

The transfer student should also be aware of the immunization, foreign language, and continuous enrollment policies of the university.

Students should complete the following prerequisite courses listed below at the lower level prior to entering the university. If these courses are not taken at the community college, they must be completed before the degree is granted.

Unless stated otherwise, a grade of “C-” is the minimum acceptable grade:

ENC 1101 Composition I 3
ENC 1102 Composition II 3

Six semester hours earned in courses taught in the English Department, EACH with 6,000 words of evaluated writing for a TOTAL of 12,000 words.

Suggested electives:

AMH 2010 American History I 3
AMH 2020 American History II 3
EUH 2021 Medieval History I 3
EUH 2022 Medieval History II 3

Upper-level coursework in the English Major:

The program in English provides three areas of specialization (divided into three degree-options below):

- English and American literature - The primary mission of the literature option is to provide a solid foundation in the study of British and American literature. The program also offers courses in other world literatures in translation, cultural studies, feminist and ethnic studies, and both traditional and more recent critical approaches.
- Creative writing - The creative writing option includes training in writing fiction and poetry and study of English and American literature.
- Professional and technical writing - The professional and technical writing option combines the study of English and American literature with an introduction to writing found in the professional workplace.

The English Education major is described under the section for the College of Education. Major requirements for English majors are listed below. A grade of “D” will not be counted toward fulfilling the major requirements. Grades of “D” or “F” in English courses will, however, be used in calculating the major GPA unless the course is taken under the grade forgiveness policy. Students may not use more than one Directed Study toward meeting the major requirements. Transfer students must earn at least 15 hours in the major at USF. A 2.5 GPA in the major is required for graduation.

English Honors program

The Department of English Honors Program will provide a carefully selected group of seniors with opportunities for advanced scholarship:
A. Closer contact with faculty tutors than students in the regular major program;
B. An opportunity to work and exchange ideas in the stimulating environment of a small group of fellow students with similar aims and abilities;
C. An opportunity to develop individual initiative and sophisticated critical skills.

The English Honors Program will benefit those interested in graduate work, advanced professional study, or greater intellectual challenges.

Admissions Criteria

Students may apply for the program after completing 80 hours of course work (90 before actual admission). Applicants should have a GPA of 3.3 in the major and an overall GPA of 3.0 and should submit signatures of recommendation from two English faculty supporting their applications.

After screening all applications, the department's Honors Committee will select participants for each year's program.

Requirements for Completion of Departmental Honors

1. The Honors student will complete the requirements of his/her chosen English major as described in the current catalog.
2. In addition to the requirements of the major, the student will take two (three-hour) Honors seminars during the first semester of his/her senior year. Both courses should help the student in selecting a topic for his/her Honors thesis.
3. During the second semester of the senior year, the Honors student will enroll for three thesis hours. The Director of the English Honors Program will serve as instructor of record for the thesis hours. Under the direction of the instructors of the Honors seminars and/or the Director of the English Honors Program, the student will choose a member of the English Department faculty to serve as director or his/her thesis and one or two additional faculty members to serve as readers of the thesis. The student must satisfy the following requirements:
   a. Complete both Honors seminars with a 3.3 GPA;
   b. Complete all remaining major requirements with a 3.3 GPA and remaining academic course work with an overall GPA of 3.0;
   c. Submit an acceptable thesis to the Departmental Honors committee.
4. The student who completes all requirements above will graduate with Honors in English. The credit hours completed within the program by the student who does not complete all Honors requirements will, of course, count toward the baccalaureate degree.
